

Viviam Sifontes is a beacon of compassion, wisdom, and dedication in the heart of Tampa Bay. With over three decades of experience as a social worker and educator, Viviam has dedicated her life to uplifting her community through counseling, education, advocacy, and leadership.

Since 1995, Viviam has been a steadfast presence in the Tampa Bay area, touching the lives of countless families with her boundless knowledge, kindness, and unwavering commitment. Armed with two bachelor's degrees and two postgraduate degrees in human services, public administration, and education, she has become a cornerstone in empowering individuals and families to forge healthier, more self-sufficient paths forward.

As the founder and leader of Latinos Unidos por un-Nuevo Amanecer (LUNA, Inc.), Viviam spearheads initiatives to support Latino individuals facing cancer, along with their caregivers and friends. Through LUNA, she coordinates transformative 3-day oncology camps tailored specifically for Latina cancer survivors, offering a space of healing, empowerment, and camaraderie.

Viviam's personal journey as a two-time cancer survivor fuels her passion for her work at the Moffitt Cancer Center, where she serves as a Community Research Educator. Drawing on her own experiences and professional expertise, she delivers impactful presentations on cultural diversity, clinical trials, support groups, and the art of living fully beyond illness.

Beyond her professional pursuits, Viviam is a heritage artist, finding solace and expression through the visual arts. As a devoted wife and mother of two daughters, her family remains her greatest source of pride, strength, and joy. Her three grandchildren serve as constant reminders of the importance of resilience, hope, and the pursuit of meaningful goals.

Viviam's academic accomplishments speak volumes about her commitment to personal and professional growth. A graduate of Barry University and Universidad de Salamanca, she holds Master's degrees in Public Administration and Education and Culture, respectively. Additionally, her certification as a Coach in Holistic Psychology and Integral Coach further demonstrates her dedication to holistic well-being and personal development.

Throughout her illustrious career, Viviam has been honored with numerous accolades and recognitions from esteemed institutions such as the Moffitt Cancer Center, the University of South Florida, the University of Tampa, and the American Cancer Society, among others. Her tireless efforts as an educator, community leader, and consultant in Latino and cancer studies have left an indelible mark on the Tampa Bay community and beyond.

In every facet of her life, Viviam Sifontes embodies the spirit of resilience, empathy, and unwavering dedication to serving others. With her boundless passion and unwavering commitment, she continues to illuminate the path toward healing, hope, and empowerment for all those she touches.
