

Melisa Martinez is a dynamic leader with a rich educational background and over two decades of experience in the construction industry. Armed with a Bachelor's degree in Construction Management and an Associate's degree in Interior Design, Melisa has honed her expertise in community redevelopment and project management.

For the past 19 years, Melisa has served as the Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) Senior Project Manager for the City of Tampa, where she has played a pivotal role in revitalizing neighborhoods across nine CRA districts. Her passion for urban renewal is evident in her collaborative approach, working closely with community advisory committees to devise innovative strategies for transforming blighted properties and enhancing the cityscape.

Melisa is not only a dedicated professional but also a staunch advocate for gender diversity in the construction industry. She actively supports organizations like the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC), championing the professional development and empowerment of women in the field.

Her commitment to community service extends beyond her professional duties. Melisa has been deeply involved in organizations dedicated to serving the Hispanic community, holding leadership positions in the Mayor's Hispanic Heritage Committee (MHHC) for nearly a decade. Through her initiatives, she promotes cultural awareness and educational opportunities, enriching the lives of Tampa's Hispanic population.

Melisa's outstanding leadership has been recognized with prestigious accolades, including the 2023 Matilda Martinez Leadership Award and a proclamation from the City of Tampa in 2023. She has also been nominated for awards such as the 2022 Josephine Howard Stafford Memorial Award, further affirming her dedication and impact.

Outside of her professional and community commitments, Melisa volunteers her time advocating for educational equity and outreach programs, embodying her altruistic spirit and commitment to uplifting her community. Her tireless efforts make her a deserving candidate for recognition and admiration.